He must be one who will not initiate any person unless duly empowered so to do by the proper authorities, holding a Warrant for that purpose under the Grand Black Chapter of Ireland, the same having been legally transferred into his hands; who will, as far as in his power, aid and assist all Sir Knights of this Royal Black Institution, and not wrong, or see any of them wronged, if in his power to prevent it. He must have such a sense of his duty as a Protestant, that he will not marry a member of the Romish Church, nor stand sponsor for the child of a Roman Catholic, nor permit a Roman Catholic to stand sponsor for his child. And furthermore, should he at any time entertain any speculations regarding the secrets, signs, passwords, or mysteries of any of the higher degrees in this Royal Black Institution, or should he by accident or otherwise become actually possessed of any knowledge of the same, without their having been regularly conferred upon him, he must be one who will inviolably preserve such knowledge within his own breast, and who will not comment upon, or discuss, nor communicate his speculations or knowledge to any person or persons whatever; and lastly, he must obey, without scruple or

That he will, to the utmost of his power, keep regular and preserve the papers, books, seals, and other property of the Preceptory, &c., committed to his care; and that he will not lend the seal to any person, nor affix it to any paper or document whatsoever, unless by order of the Chapter or Preceptory regularly assembled.

Treasurer or Deputy-Treasurer.

That he will diligently collect all payments to be made to the Chapter or Preceptory, and fairly account for all moneys which shall come into his hands on account of, or for the use of, the Chapter or Preceptory, whenever the Chapter or Preceptory shall require the same; and hand in all balances, or sums of money in hand, to such person or persons as the Chapter or Preceptory shall order or direct.

RULES OF ORDER.

1. The Grand Master shall preserve order and decorum, and decide questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Grand Chapter.

2. The Grand Master shall not take part in any debate, nor vote on any motion, unless on an equal division, when he may give his reasons for voting; or he may express his views upon any subject in debate before the vote is taken. When the Yeas and Nays are called, he shall have a deciding vote in case of a tie.

3. When the Grand Master or any member is called on to explain a point of order or practice, he shall state the Rule applicable to the case without argument or comment.

4. Every member of the Grand Chapter, previous to his speaking, shall rise to attention and address himself to the Grand Master.

5. When two or more members rise at the same time the Grand Master shall decide who is to speak first.

6. When the Grand Master is putting a question no Sir Knight shall speak, walk out of, or cross the room.

7. No Sir Knight, while speaking shall be interrupted, except upon a point of order, nor shall any Sir Knight pass between him and the chair.

8. When a Sir Knight is called to order he shall resume his seat until the question of order is decided; he may, however, be permitted to explain, but in no case to introduce new matter.

9. Whenever the Grand Chapter is appealed to against a decision of the Grand Master, it shall be put in the following words: "Shall the chair be sustained?" and shall not be open for debate, the Grand Master having the right in all cases to state his reasons for the decision given. If there be no appeal the decision of the Grand Master shall be final.

10. A member may require the question in discussion to be read for his information at any time of the debate, but not so as to interrupt a Sir Knight while speaking.

11. No Sir Knight shall speak more than once on the same question, unless by permission of the Grand Master, or in explanation, nor longer than ten minutes, save the mover, who shall have a right to reply, after which the debate shall close.

12. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, except when an adjournment was the next preceding motion.

13. No motion shall be debated or put unless it be in writing, with the names of the mover and seconder thereof.

14. After a motion has been received by the Grand Master, and read, it shall be deemed in possession of the Grand Chapter, but it may be withdrawn at any time before decision or amendment, with permission of the Grand Chapter.

15. When a question is under debate no motion shall be received except to amend, postpone, lay on the table, the previous question, to adjourn, or to commit.

16. The previous question, until decided, shall preclude all amendments or debate of the main question, and shall be put in the following words: "Shall the main question be now put?"

17. All motions shall be put in the order in which they are received, except to amend, fixing dates, or naming sums, when the longest date and the largest sum shall be put first.

18. No motion prefaced by a preamble shall be admitted.

19. The Grand Master shall receive and read every motion when seconded before it can be debated.

20. A motion to re-consider must be made and seconded by Sir Knights who have voted in the majority. No question shall be re-considered more than once. To re-consider any resolution, the decision of which has officially passed out of the Grand Chapter, shall not be in order.

21. It shall be the duty of the Grand Master, when he conceives that a motion which he has received and read may be contrary to the Rules and Regulations of the Grand Chapter, to inform the Grand Chapter before such motion is put, and to cite the Rule applicable to the case.

22. No motion to amend an amendment to an amendment shall be received.

23. In all unprovided cases the Grand Master shall decide, subject to an appeal to the Grand Chapter.

24. The yeas and nays shall be taken only on the request of five members.

25. In taking the yeas and nays the Grand Registrar shall call the names of the Sir Knights, who, on their names being called, shall answer yes or no, and he shall record the same; after which the result shall be read aloud, to rectify mistakes, if any, when the Grand Registrar shall hand the vote to the Grand Master, who shall announce the same.

26. In voting by yeas and nays all Sir Knights entitled must vote, unless excused by the Grand Chapter, but no Sir Knight shall vote who was not in the room when the question was put. A motion to excuse shall be put without debate.

27. No Sir Knight shall be permitted to speak or vote unless clothed in regalia suitable to his rank and station in the Grand Chapter.

28. Any Sir Knight refusing to take his seat when the Grand Master's gavel is heard, the offending Sir Knight shall be compelled to leave the Chapter room.

29. When a majority report of a Committee is followed by a report from the minority, the former, after being read, shall lie on the table until the latter is presented, after which, on motion, either may be considered.

30. These Rules of Order, as far as applicable, shall apply to all Chapters and Preceptories.

PRAYERS &c.

Prayer for Opening Preceptories or Chapters.

O, Lord God Almighty, as it pleased Thee in former times to write, on tables of stone, Thy holy and just commandments, for the instruction of Thy people, under the guidance of Thy servant Moses. so now inscribe upon our hearts the great and glorious precepts of Thy everlasting Gospel; and enable each amongst us to follow faithfully the banner of the Chaptain of our Salvation. Grant this, O Lord, for the sake of Thy Son Jesus Christ.—Amen.

Form of Opening.

I, ———, by virtue of the authority vested in me, open this Preceptory, &c., for our mutual instruction and the despatch of business, exhorting all present to be mindful of their duties as Christian Knights and Brethren, and the dignity of the Order to which you have been admitted. I declare this Preceptory open.—God Save the Queen.

After Initiation of a Candidate.

O Lord our God, who didst raise up Thy servant the prophet to rebuke the idolatry of Israel, and yet had kept for Thyself seven thousand who had not bowed the knee to Baal; Grant that this our brother may be ever true and faithful in Thy service, may be enabled boldly to testify to the truth, be kept true from all false worship, and finally be brought to Thy everlasting kingdom, through Jesus Christ our Lord.—Amen.

Prayer for Closing Preceptories, &c.

Refresh us, O Lord, we beseech Thee, with Thy blessing, and grant that we may never violate the bonds of morality and virtue, so that we may profit by the instruction we have received, and emulate each other in uprightness of conduct and principle. Grant this, O Lord, through Jesus Christ.—Amen.

Form of Closing.

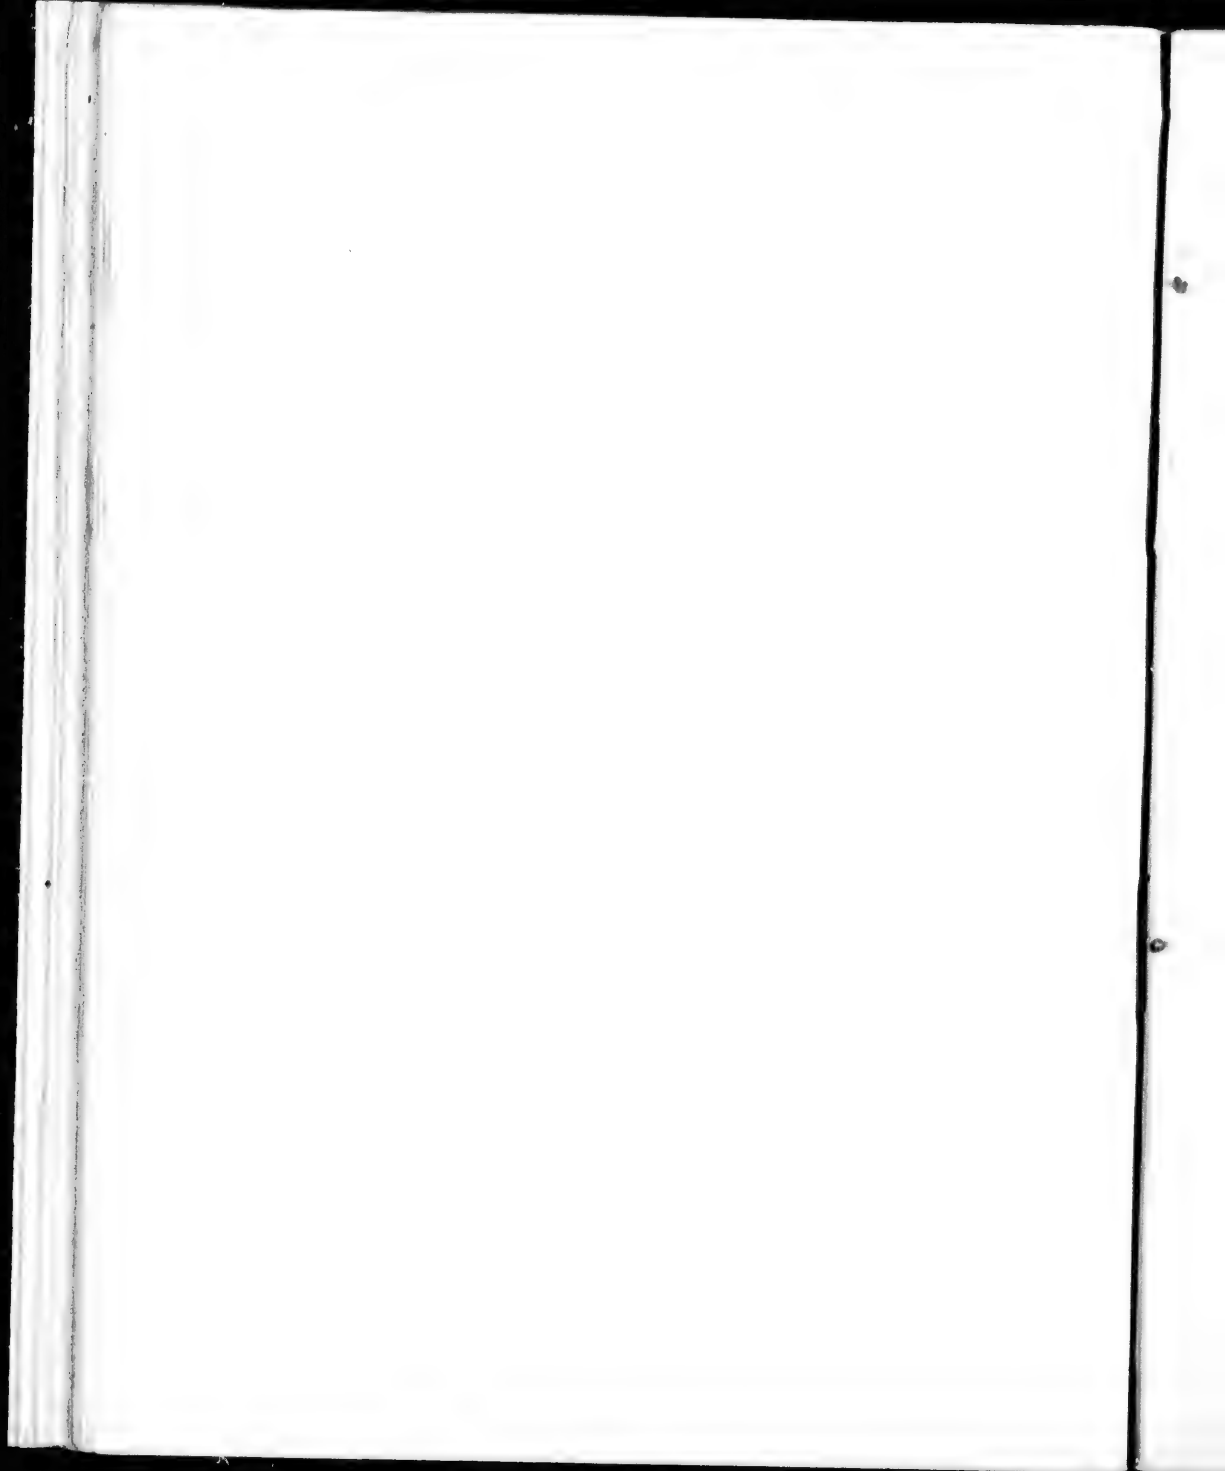

By virtue of the office under Divine Providence committed to my charge, and in memory of the delivery of the children of Israel from bondage, I close this Preceptory, &c., until———counselling you all to return to your respective homes peaceably and quietly, and not by any act of ours to bring discredit on the colors which we wear.—God Save the Queen.
